

oped there, even in the most serious epidemics here. Cases have been taken to the parish but whether the patient recovered or died there has never been any extension of the infection. The reason for the immunity of St. Louis is that the stevedores have never started there.

Because of the rigidity of the quarantine instituted by Texas and some of the parishes in Louisiana, the Southern Pacific has suspended passenger traffic and has also refused much of the freight offered to it. General Freight Agent Fay, however, issued an announcement today that beginning on Saturday the road would again receive freight for Texas points.

RAILROADS HANDICAPPED.
Aside from the fever itself, the conditions brought about by the strict quarantine are serious and are felt in every line of commercial life. The railroads are badly handicapped and in many instances are unable to move passengers, the mails or freight. The Southern Pacific has entirely suspended the main line discontinued because one parish in West Louisiana refused to permit trains of any kind to pass through, night express trains on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad is also disturbed.

The regulations in relation to sleeping cars have been changed generally so that the coach service. Sleepers southbound on this line are stopped at Mobile, Ala., and the occupants transferred to screened day coaches for the remainder of their journey. Northbound passengers from New Orleans are taken to Grand Bay, Ala., a station twenty-five miles west of Mobile, and there transferred to sleepers on the through trains for the North. These northbound trains run to Montgomery, Ala., without stopping.

The local business is handled by the accommodation trains, but any passenger along this route who is wishing to board a through train must go to either Mobile or Montgomery to do so.

Beginning tomorrow, the train leaving Louisville at 11 p.m. over the Louisville and Nashville will be held at Mobile, Ala., with tomorrow the Cincinnati and New Orleans Limited, on the same road, will be discontinued beyond Mobile and passengers for New Orleans will be compelled to wait some time at Mobile.

The Illinois Central is stopping all its southbound trains at Harahan, La., where the train is to be screened coaches is made under the strictest conditions as apply at Mobile. The officials of the Illinois Central report no serious delay to their trains, but they are under the strict and unerring quarantine.

Citizens in cities and towns in Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama make complaint that reports of prevalence of yellow fever are being spread broadcast in some unaccountable manner. The rumors are to be run down in every instance possible and their perpetrators punished.

TROUBLE IN LOCATING CAMP.
Though the armed forces of Mississippi and Louisiana have been in touch for twelve hours, there have been no reports of collision and the situation is not regarded as acute. The Marine Hospital Service is to have more trouble in locating its detention camp at Fontainebleau, near New Orleans, which was given yesterday by Gov. Vardaman. Advice from Biloxi today which announced that the camp is to be placed at Fontainebleau has caused a vigorous protest on the part of the citizens of Jackson county. The wires were kept busy last night carrying protests to the Governor, and a delegation will be sent to remonstrate with him against the proposed action. Gov. Vardaman has asked in return for matters until the people can be heard from. It is said that in the present temper of the people of Jackson county open rebellion will follow the attempt to establish the station.

A dispatch from Biloxi says: "The Louisiana naval reserve unit, the L. L. L., by the Oyster Commission J. J. Munoz, took possession in Ship Island Canal today of the Mississippi patrol boat type."

The most radical action thus far taken is that of the police board of Calcasieu, the second largest parish in the State. It has passed resolutions ordering that all traffic, travel and intercourse between Calcasieu and points east, north and west be suspended, and that no one shall be permitted to enter the limits of the parish until further orders. In consequence of this resolution, the Southern Pacific has been ordered from today to run no more trains through Calcasieu, which means an abandonment of through service of the line to the west. The Kansas City Southern trains have also been stopped. It is in the opinion of the anti-fever line that the effect of the orders is to stop all mail service. Calcasieu has thus far done, on everything except mail and fuel.

RADICAL PRECAUTIONS.
At Mermentau, La., shots were exchanged between guards and a negro who was trying to break through the quarantine. Grant Parish has introduced a shotgun quarantine, stops all trains and has shut herself off completely from mail service.

Lafayette, La., has issued orders that only mail and disinfectant freight shall come into the parish.

Texas parishes have quarantined all passengers, baggage and household goods, fruits and fabrics. Precautions as radical as these have been taken in many other parishes of the South, and there is apparently as great a panic prevailing as at any time during 1897, the bulk of the country laymen refusing to put their faith in the mosquito theory.

Although the report of new cases in the preceding paragraph ordinarily have a tendency to cause alarm, the detailed assurance in analysis of the detailed report made by the Board of Health, the fact that the disease is not making feeble progress above.

The exodus from Louisiana towns where fever has appeared continues. A large number of people have gone north and east from Shreveport and points in the vicinity of the river. It is reported to have so far recovered as to be able to sit up in bed.

Archbishop Chapelle has returned to the city from a tour through Louisiana and expresses himself as deeply concerned over the state of the public health. Mr. Chapelle will offer his services to the authorities in the fight in progress and will issue through the clergy a pastoral letter giving his views and advice to meet the emergency.

Owing to the quarantine there is real suffering on the part of those who are fleeing from the country districts of Louisiana.

NON-FOREIGNERS STRICKEN.
There is a larger proportion of non-foreign names in today's list than has yet appeared, and that is the only phase of the report which causes any uneasiness, for it shows that the disease is making its appearance among the other elements of the community.

Dr. C. Milo Brady, the traveling inspector of the State Board of Health, reports another case in Jefferson parish, opposite New Orleans, one mile below Amiteville.

The arbitrary action of the parish of Rapid in stopping all traffic through the parish has been amended and through trains on the Texas and Pacific will be allowed to continue.

Acting Assistant Surgeon Maylie of the Marine Hospital Service reported by wire today from Echo, the Texas quarantine station, that he had recovered twenty people who had been in the Avondale detention camp and turned them over to the Texas authorities. They were all allowed to go right through.

The camp near Harahan, on the Illinois Central and the Mississippi Valley Road, has been named Camp Wyman and has been opened for travelers. The camp at Fontainebleau will be ready by Monday.

THE PRESIDENT TAKES ACTION.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—President Roosevelt tonight forwarded to Surgeon-General Wyman, of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, a telegram from Gov. Blanchard of Louisiana, requesting that the United States take control of the yellow fever situation in New Orleans. The President directed the Surgeon-General to take every step in his power to meet the situation in New Orleans, and to notify him by wire of his action is advisable and possible for the Federal authorities to take. The telegram, in full, is as follows:

"I have received following telegram from Gov. Blanchard of Louisiana: 'At a joint meeting of representatives of all commercial bodies of New Orleans and other prominent persons at which were present the Mayor of the city, the State health authorities and the New Orleans Medical Association, a resolution was adopted: 'That this meeting indorse the proposition to take control of the yellow fever situation in New Orleans; that the Governor of the State and the Mayor of the city be requested to take steps to carry this proposition into effect. Further, that the hearty cooperation of the State and city health boards and the parish medical societies and of the merchants and people generally be pledged in such action as may be taken by the government.'"

"I am requested by the Mayor of the city, the president of the State and the boards of health and by a committee of prominent citizens to transmit the above resolution to you and request you take over, on behalf of the Federal government, through the proper channels, the yellow fever situation at New Orleans. The State is in a state of emergency and the Mayor and the people are in a state of alarm. Please take every step in your power to meet the situation at New Orleans and comply with the request of the Governor and the Mayor. Advise me by wire of the result of your action. Please confer with the Surgeon-General of the army and navy if in your judgment this is wise. (Signed) 'THEODORE ROOSEVELT.'"

TAKE OVER SITUATION.
The President has acknowledged the President's telegram and will make a report tomorrow.

MISSOURI ISSUES ORDER.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4.—The quarantine order issued by the Missouri health board against districts affected by yellow fever will be enforced along the eastern border of the State, from north to St. Louis, along the entire southern border and along the western border as far north as Kansas City.

The establishment of quarantine stations and detention camps will be in the hands of different local boards of health. The State board is not to interfere. In case of persons succeeding in entering the State from the danger zones of the South they will be detained at quarantine towns farther in the interior if unable to exhibit a bill of health.

GOV. VARDAMAN'S DENIAL.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
JACKSON, (Miss.) Aug. 4.—Gov. Vardaman today made public the following:

"In Mississippi, only the two sporadic cases of yellow fever previously reported have occurred. No embargo is placed upon merchandise coming from anywhere, and, upon proper certificate that a person has not been in the infected district for ten days, previous he is not quarantined. 'The report that I have ordered out the State militia is absolutely untrue. Members of the State militia are performing guard duty, but are not acting in a military capacity.'"

SUSPECTS IN NEW YORK.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Four fever suspects were taken from the steamer Neuchâtel from Quebec today at quarantine and transferred to Hoffman Island for observation, as to the cause of abnormally high temperatures. One was a stevedore and messenger and the other members of crew.

SOUTH CAROLINA QUARANTINES.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
CHARLESTON (S. C.) Aug. 4.—Mayor Rhett has proclaimed a quarantine against yellow fever points to take effect Sunday, August 6.

DEATH REVEALS HIS NOBILITY.
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Funeral services will be held tonight in Brooklyn over Baron Charles Frederick Edmond de Saldern, a third son of the noble house of Von Saldern of Germany.

Baron de Saldern was the son of Gen. Charles Frederick von Saldern, and his great-grandfather, who sided to Frederick the Great. His family is one of the oldest in the empire. He was appointed lieutenant in the army at the age of 21. Immediately afterward, the young man quarreled with his family as a result of his democratic tendencies, and throwing up his commission, he came to America. On the death of his father, Baron de Saldern, he inherited a fortune.

FAY TEMPLETON'S SISTER.
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Lee Tuttle, sister of Fay Templeton, the actress, died of tuberculosis in Bellevue Hospital today. The woman, who was at one time beautiful and the favorite sister of the star who is now singing at a New York roof garden, passed away in the public ward of the hospital. Mrs. Tuttle's mother died last winter. Her father, who was a physician, died of tuberculosis.

KAISER HONORS FRENCH BONES.
Berlin, Aug. 4.—The French government some time ago expressed a wish that the bones of French soldiers who died while fighting during the Franco-Prussian War be returned to France. Emperor William has ordered that this be done and that military honors be rendered in every instance during the transfer.

THE GREAT WAR. FOR YOU CAN'T KEEP A GOOD MAN DOWN.

Pierce, who, in the absence of Secretary Root, will represent the Department of State, accompanied by his guests, will go aboard the Mayflower, probably about noon. He will be accompanied by Rear-Admiral Charles D. Sigbee, as representative of the navy, and Maj. Gen. Frederick D. Grant, commander of the Department of the East, as representative of the army.

LEAVING NEW YORK.
The Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries and their suites will leave New York tomorrow morning. The Japanese at 9 o'clock and the Russians at 10 o'clock. The departure will be from the foot of East Twenty-third street. The envoys and their suites will make the trip to Oyster Bay in sister ships, the cruisers Chattanooga and the Tacoma. Thus, they will not meet until the reach here and are formally presented to the President of the United States. The cruisers are expected to arrive in the outer bay—the Chattanooga, bearing the Japanese envoys, about 11:45 o'clock, and the Tacoma, bearing the Russians, an hour or so later.

The President will go aboard the Mayflower at 1 o'clock. He will be greeted with a Presidential salute of twenty-one guns from the Mayflower as he goes aboard and his pennant will be broken out at the fore peak. As soon as his flag is displayed, the Japanese plenipotentiaries, Baron Komura Jutaro, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Kogoro Takahira, Minister of Japan to the United States, and their suites, will proceed to the Mayflower in launches from their cruiser. As they go over the side, a salute of fifteen guns will be fired in their honor, the crew will dress and they will be received on deck by Commander Winslow and his officers in special dress uniform. They will be escorted to the handsome main cabin, where Assistant Secretary Pierce will present the envoys and each member of their suite to the President. Such exchanges as may be made at the time will be purely informal. In turn, the envoys and other officials of the special mission will be presented to the guests of the President on board.

PRESENTATION OF ENVOYS.
At the conclusion of this ceremony, the Russian plenipotentiaries, Sergius Witte, president of the Committee of Ministers, and Baron Rosen, the Russian Ambassador to the United States, accompanied by their suite, will board the Mayflower and in the same formal manner be received and then presented to the President.

The envoys of the two powers will be made by President Roosevelt and Assistant Secretary Pierce to render the ceremony as natural and easy as possible.

These ceremonies concluded, a luncheon will be served. In order to avoid any unusual questions of precedence, the luncheon will be a buffet collation. This will avoid the seating of the guests at table with the President. The party at the luncheon will number about twenty-five.

Shortly after luncheon, the President will take leave of the envoys and will return to shore in a launch. His pennant will be lowered, and another salute will be fired as he leaves the ship.

From the Mayflower, the Japanese envoys and their suite will be conveyed to the dispatch boat Dolphin, which will be anchored near by the Russian envoys and their suite remaining on the Mayflower. On these ships, the two sets of envoys will be conveyed to Portsmouth, N. H., where the sessions of the peace conference are to be held. Soon after the departure of the guests, the Mayflower and the Dolphin will weigh anchor and start on their journey, conveyed by the cruised Galveston.

TRY TO BLOW UP SHIP AT SEA.
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—An attempt to blow up a ship in midocean has been reported by Capt. C. Touze of the French ship Anieres, which has arrived here from Swanes, Eng., loaded with coal. He left that port in January last, and six weeks later, when far out at sea, a dynamite cap was exploded, but fortunately at points where there was no gas, and consequently no damage was done. The presence of the dynamite was said by witnesses, only by accident, when, during some rough weather, men were sent down into the hold to level the coal. The Anieres belongs to the Societe Anonyme des Longs Courriers Francais of Paris.

JUMP UPON UNGALLANT BROKER.
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Brudeney Exton, who asserts that his grandfather was Lord Mayor of London, is a prisoner in the tenderfoot police station under a charge of disorderly conduct. Exton, who also claims to be an insurance broker, is said by witnesses to have knocked down a woman in front of a Broadway hotel, while conversing with an acquaintance. Exton stumbled against the woman and exploded, but fortunately at points where there was no gas, and consequently no damage was done. The presence of the dynamite was said by witnesses, only by accident, when, during some rough weather, men were sent down into the hold to level the coal. VINCENNES (Ind.) Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A posse, consisting of 150 farmers, is searching for three men and a woman who kidnaped Jennie Hill and Mollie Adams near Sandborn, this afternoon, and the news of a lynching is expected. The Hill girl is now at her home in a state of collapse, having fought off her captors and escaped, and Miss Adams was found, bound and gagged, on the banks of White River, but is unable from fright to give an intelligent account of her terrible experience.

STUDENT LEVINGS KILLED.

LOVELAND (Colo.) Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Louis R. Levings, a student at Armour Institute, Chicago, was killed yesterday afternoon by falling from the summit of Mount Ypsilon in Estes Park. The distance from which the unfortunate young man fell to the bottom of a narrow ravine, where the body still lies, was about four hundred feet.

METHODISTS AND KIPLING.
BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rudyard Kipling has been given official recognition as a hymn writer by the Methodist Episcopal Church. His "Recessional" is one of a number of recent-day poems incorporated in the revised church hymnal, just completed by a joint committee of the northern and southern branches of the Wesleyan Church. Richard Watson Gilder is another living writer of poetry who has been recognized, his poem "To Thee, Eternal Son, Be Praise," appearing in the book. Nearly one hundred new hymns have been added and four hundred old hymns eliminated. All the old favorites are retained.

Boycott and Exclusion Treaty
Under Wu's Control.

Anti-American Movement is Spreading in China.

Gen. Chaffee's Methodical Ways—Wilson Interview.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Authentic information has come to the administration that Wu Tingfang, the former Chinese Minister to this country, has been put in sole charge of negotiations looking to the removal of the exclusion treaty between this country and China. His authority is reported to be direct from the throne, and in the treaty negotiations he is for the time being the superior of Mr. Channing Line Chen, the present Chinese Minister.

Previously, it was reported that Wu was behind the present boycott movement, and was interested in fomenting commercial discord that would result in the benefit of China when the new treaty was signed.

His rise, if such it be, is apparently in a fair way of achieving success. The present situation is undoubtedly causing the administration some active concern. Reports have reached here from China that the movement against Americans is spreading, and that anti-American sentiment is being brought into existence through the distribution of inflammatory placards and handbills in the vicinity of Canton, picturing the United States as a land of oppression and exploitation.

These reports are strengthened by the dispatches of the other day from the fact that at one of our consuls had been molested in the street by a lot of coolies. It is realized that if this feeling grows and is allowed to spread, serious and serious consequences may follow.

CAPT. HOBSON'S VIGILANCE.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "While Japan can count on American sympathy and support in every legitimate effort to guard against further encroachment of the powers, the United States must realize that America must stand against any Japanese encroachment upon China," said Capt. Richard Hobson tonight. Continuing, he said: "I estimate that with China properly opened up to the trade of the world and with equal rights to all, America will have a trade with China of over $2,000,000,000 annually within a matter of a century after the Panama Canal is completed."

"Those vast interests must not be endangered. Perhaps it may be time to sound the note of warning the moment that Chinese territory becomes involved. Peace negotiations can no longer be regarded as local between belligerents only. Any power that attempts to acquire Manchuria, permit the Japanese to have to reckon with America."

MARINE HOSPITAL INQUIRY.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Navy Department developed today that Captain Barrett, recently received at the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service from "Past Assistant Surgeon M. J. White, stationed at Hongkong, China, charges that a ring composed entirely of Indians, who are being held up by their countrymen intending to emigrate to the United States, Surgeon White expressed the opinion that the matter should be submitted to the Chinese government for inquiry, and that assistance should be given by officers of this government in unearthing the imposture which he believes is being practiced on Chinese immigrants."

Surgeon White's report was based on charges that Marine Hospital surgeons stationed at Chinese ports have conspired to hold up Chinese persons entitled to admission to the United States. He said he had made a thorough investigation into the charges, and expressed the belief that no persons in the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service are implicated in the alleged practice.

MINISTER BARRETT'S MISSION.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—John Barrett, the newly-appointed minister to Colombia, is here in connection with the commercial relations existing between the United States and China, particularly as the boycott movement, as reported by the Chinese, against American products. He is, in fact, here to discuss the matter with the Chinese government, and to interview some of the merchants who are engaged in the Oriental trade.

Minister Barrett, while conceding that the Chinese guilds are all-powerful in their country, is of the opinion that the present alarm shown by the people of this country over the action of the Chinese is unjustified and exaggerated. He firmly believes that whatever grievances the Chinese guilds have will soon be dispelled, when they are made to feel that our government is disposed to act fairly with them in the matter of immigration.

He is also of the opinion that our future policy, as regards the Orient, will depend much upon the results of the peace conference between the representatives of Russia and Russia, and predicts that the next two years will witness a great change in the policy of the United States. Such a change will be the result of the considerable improvement of our commercial relations in the Far East.

annual vacation during the investigation he is conducting into the Department of Agriculture. He had intended to leave Washington August 31 to accompany Clifford Pinchot on a tour of the western forest reserves. This work will now be left to Mr. Pinchot. If Mr. Pinchot has any reason to suspect the integrity of my employees, now is the time for him to speak, said the Secretary today. "I am in the inspection business, and I am not to get at the bottom of any rumors or facts relative to the department. The Weather Bureau and the Bureau of Animal Industry have been said to hold scandal. I accepted the charges against these bureaus as a basis for investigation, and I have found that the charges were without foundation."

Mrs. John Hyde, wife of the former chief of the Bureau of Statistics, who is now in Europe, visited the department today in an effort to collect the salary due her husband. She was told that the bureau was under investigation by the Department of Justice, and the amount due her husband would be withheld until this investigation was completed. No word has been received from Mr. Hyde since his telegram to Secretary Wilson, saying he would return from Europe as soon as possible. Mrs. Hyde has for some time been suffering with nervous prostration. He had trouble of this character when he left the United States. It is not known whether the recurrence of his ailment will delay his return.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Acting Secretary of the Interior Ryan has decided that appropriations for the maintenance of Indian tribal schools in the Indian Territory must cease March 4, next, when tribal government of the five civilized tribes goes into effect. The decision is announced in a letter from Commissioner of Indian Affairs in response to a letter from that office, asking to be advised as to the length of time payments should be made.

DUKE OF CORNWALL'S OWN.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The State Department today telegraphed to the British Ambassador and the American Consul-General at Ottawa that the governors of New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts formally consented to the passage through those States of the Duke of Cornwall's Own Regiment.

The Duke of Cornwall's Own Regiment is now in Ottawa, waiting to proceed to visit Boston and Providence. The only restriction is in the case of Massachusetts, where the trade of the province prohibits the assembly of visiting troops for drill or parade. The telegram to the Ambassador was addressed to him both at New York and the summer home of the embassy at Lenox.

MUTILATED HISTORIC FLAG.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
VANDALS AT ANNAPOLIS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Navy Department officials today issued a warning that the mutilation of the historic flag left to the officers of the cruiser Brooklyn to drape the casket containing the body of John Paul Jones, a strip a foot long and two inches wide was cut from the flag, which belongs to the daughter of the American Revolution, and was sent to the cruiser by Mrs. Donald McLean.

The vandalism was discovered at Annapolis, when the admiral's body was taken ashore. The mutilation was guarded by the admiral's body, which they knew of the desecration. Members of the crew were then compelled to sign letters that they had not seen the mutilation, and the mutilation was guarded by the admiral's body, which they knew of the desecration.

DR. SALMON'S LABEL.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Dr. D. E. Salmon, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture, who has held that office for many years, today admitted that he was the business partner of George E. Howard of this city when the gelatin meat label was patented, and also when, in June, 1901, the first contract for the label was awarded by the Department of Agriculture. After the first contract was secured from the department, Dr. Salmon, who had been in partnership with Howard, had already practically withdrawn before that. His interest in the printing establishment then was appraised.

Gov. Pardee's Private Secretary
Discusses Railroad Matters and Defends the Esch-Townsend Bill.
Equalizers Hear From Mellish.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 1.—Thomas Mellish, secretary and auditor of the California Northwestern, was before the State Board of Equalization today, and made his usual interesting statement on railroad valuations. Mellish, in answer to questions, said that the road had a good future, and would be extended as rapidly as possible into the Humboldt country. It has cost several millions of dollars to tap the timber belt, but eventually it would pay handsomely. He said that one merchant in Eureka had a standing offer that he would pay $3000 for the first ticket from that city to San Francisco. He said it was estimated that if one hundred carloads of lumber a day were taken out of that country annually during the next one hundred years, that hardly any impression would be made on the supply.

In speaking of the future of the North Shore Railroad, he said that while this year's statement showed a deficit of $185,020.52, the road had a great future, as it was rapidly building up the locally which it traversed. He said that at the present time the management of the road was a "hard grind," and during the past year not one of the principal officers of the road had taken a cent of salary.

Mellish said the steam roads of the country were badly handicapped by the electric systems, and within fifty years all steam locomotives would be superseded by electric power. He predicted that when the roads to the East were double-tracked and laid with heavy rails, it would be possible to go to New York in three days.

His denunciation of the proposed Esch-Townsend bill that was presented to Congress, giving the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to fix rates, etc., was combated by B. Nye, private secretary of Gov. Pardee, who was an interested spectator. Nye contended that the proposed bill gave no greater power than the California Railroad Commission possessed, and he had results had secured, and he had results had secured, and he had results had secured.

ESPEE TO SAN PEDRO.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—Freight Traffic Manager William Spruille made an official announcement today with reference to the arrangement that has been entered into between the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake line and the Southern Pacific. It reads as follows:

"Commencing on Monday next the formal reception of the envoys tomorrow. That his visit was of some significance is, perhaps, beyond doubt, and positive assurance is given that it will be a most successful one. The subject of the pending peace negotiations was no longer generally, but beyond that, no statement was made. WITTE FRAMES PRESIDENT.
NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—M. Witte and Baron Rosen reached the St. Regis Hotel on their return from Oyster Bay at 6:15 o'clock. M. Witte made the following statement about the impression he had received of the President on this, his first time he had seen him:

"I have conceived the highest opinion of Mr. Roosevelt. I was particularly struck by his energy and his mind. I feel it is good for the United States to have so distinguished a man at the head as its Executive. I fully appreciate the reasons that led to the choice of him for so responsible and honorable a post. I do not say this with any desire to flatter President Roosevelt, but I think the people of this is my sincere conviction."

As his guest at dinner tonight M. Witte had Mr. Rosen, Russia's financial agent in Washington. After dinner these two had a long conference.

During his visit to Oyster Bay M. Witte was presented to Mrs. Roosevelt and conversed with her in French.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
SEATTLE (Wash.) Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Negotiations for a settlement of the differences between the Seattle Brewing and Malting Company and its striking employees resulting in the boycott of the beer manufactured not only by this company but practically all other brewers on Puget Sound, are terminated, according to President F. J. Sweeney.

Sweeney, who has just returned from a business trip to California and Oregon, says it is not the desire of the company to have the strike continue. "Unless the men who left our employ agree to every detail of our original proposition, I will not consider a lenient or a compromise with such and in view," said Sweeney today.

For several days, a proposed settlement has been a subject of contention between the company and the strikers. The striking brewers and the allied employers and representatives of other unions, who are acting in sympathy with the strikers.

PAID $100 FOR LICENSE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—The commission that is investigating the affairs of the State Dental Board today decided for license, but nothing of importance was said.

A new feature developed with the testimony of Dr. A. J. Hullinger, a practicing dentist, who gave the commission the names of a number of dentists whom he declared were practicing without a license. Dr. Hullinger included the name of Samuel L. Branch, who he said he had recently learned that he was practicing without a license. Branch told the witness that he had secured a temporary license from Dr. J. M. Dunn, a member of the State Board, and that he had come to secure such license. Branch, so Hullinger testified, declared that he had paid $100 to Dr. F. J. Sweeney, who he would say that it was to be paid to Dr. Dunn.

SAW SHOCKING THINGS.
Sensational Testimony Given During Trial of Taggart Divorce Suit at Worcester Yesterday.

WOOSTER (O.) Aug. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sensational revelations came thick and fast in the Taggart divorce suit today. The principal witness was Mrs. J. R. Moore of San Francisco, who testified to shocking occurrences during certain slandering expeditions in San Francisco. The woman's testimony came after Mrs. Taggart's gray-haired father had testified that "Grace" was the salt of the earth.

Mrs. Moore swore that Mrs. Taggart told her that when in San Francisco she and another woman and two men had visited "French house" where two nude women danced into the room and gave a revolting exhibition.

Mrs. Moore said that Mrs. Taggart went on a visit with Charles Spencer, the woman friend in Cincinnati, and that when Mrs. Taggart returned from the Philippines and received a message from Spencer, she remarked: "I don't want him to get into the habit of coming here, for Capt. Taggart does not like him."

SWOOP DOWN ON VILE DENS.

Fernando Road and Glendale Resorts Raided.

Six Offenders are Taken in County Dragnet.

Officers Have Brisk Fight for One Prisoner.

In a sensational raid of five road-houses on the San Fernando road and of an alleged disorderly resort at West Glendale late last night, six arrests were made, including one woman, and a large quantity of liquor was confiscated. Deputy District Attorney
J. J. Fleming, assisted by Constable
J. H. De La Monte, Deputy Constable
"Jack" Adams and five other deputies.
Resistance was offered at only one place, the West Glendale resort, where the half-drunk Italians made a savage attack on Deputy Constable Adams and the officer who accompanied him.

The six prisoners were taken to the County Jail, each charged with selling liquor without a license. Two or three of them gave the required bail of $200 and were released; the others passed the remainder of the night in cells.

The prisoners taken were: Helen Raid, who was in charge of the "Golden City," known as "Motherlode's" place, near Burbank, on the San Fernando road; George Sternberg, proprietor of the "Summit," A.
O'Brien, proprietor of the "Five-mile place," near Burbank, and about three-quarters of a mile from the city limits of Los Angeles; and E. Spreen, proprietor of a notorious Italian dive at West Glendale.

In each place were found established bars, slot machines and all the paraphernalia of an ordinary city saloon.
Officers were placed on guard at each place, and the confiscated liquor and other goods will be brought to Los Angeles today.

The raid was planned with care and a successful execution reflects credit on the officers who made the descent on the liquor sellers.

Numerous complaints have been received from time to time at the office of the District Attorney, pointing to the sale of liquor and to the disturbances caused day and night at these resorts.

The raid was arranged for last night
by Deputy District Attorney Fleming and placed in charge, with the assent of Constable De La Monte, Deputy Constable Adams and the other officers.

Three carriages were used by the officers, a rendezvous was arranged, and every precaution was taken to prevent any miscarriage of their plan.

It was concerted with their action that the keepers of the various roadhouses be taken entirely by surprise and no opportunity to communicate with one another in order to give warning of the descent of the raiders.

A constabulary armed among the alleged lawbreakers was clearly indicated by the numerous telephonic calls from one saloon to another which were overheard by the officers.

Members of the raiding party in one hall would hear a faint of noise and, upon answering, would hear an excited voice announce that a raid was in progress and to give warning. Unfortunately for the objects of these warnings, they already had been placed under arrest.

In no case, according to Deputy Fleming, did his plans miscarry. The net was drawn so tight there was no escape.

As soon as an arrest was made, the prisoner was bundled into a carriage,
which was sent along to the next place,
where the prisoner left in charge of the resort, raided.

In all the places upon which the raid was made, men were found drinking liquor, but in no case was any arrest made except of the person in nominal charge, or the known proprietor.

The most serious difficulty was encountered by Deputy Constable "Jack" Adams and an assistant, who accompanied him.

While the other officers were engaged in the other raids, these men went to West Glendale, several miles from the center of activity.

They found Spreen's dive occupied by five Italians, who, when they learned the object of the visit, made a formidable show of resistance.

The excited Italians jumped on Adams, who is a small man, and tackled his assistant, not much larger.

Adams had given his revolver to another officer who was waiting at a place where more resistance was expected, and was in poor shape to cope with his antagonists.

By a heavy fight, however, they succeeded in getting Spreen handcuffed and into their carriage; then, whipping up their horses, they soon were out of range of the quintette that had pounced upon them.

In the jail at midnight the prisoners made a desperate endeavor to obtain bail, but they were successful in but two or three instances.

The value of the liquor seized is estimated at $1000. Trucks will be sent out this morning to bring the stuff and have it to be used as exhibits in the trials of the prisoners.

Deputy District Attorney Frederick has declared that he will wipe out the liquor sale of liquor throughout the county, and it is predicted that numerous additional raids are to follow.

TWO UPLAND MEN ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE.

Moulds for Making Counterfeit Money Found in House of One of Them—Capture Result of Good Work by Constable Sawyer Who Watched Them for Weeks.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

UPLAND, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Constable J. H. Sawyer of this place brought to a successful conclusion tonight what the United States secret service officials may was an excellent piece of detective work. Accompanied by Deputy United States Magistrate and Secret Service Agent Gronin, both of Los Angeles, Sawyer arrested Herman J. Woods and Herman W. Banks, on a charge of making and having in their possession moulds for the manufacture of counterfeit coins of the denominations 25 and 50 cents and $1 silver and $10 gold.

A number of moulds were found during a raid upon Woods' house. It is believed one or both of the prisoners will confess, and tell where they have a quantity of counterfeit coins secreted. In that event the further charge of making such coins will be lodged against them.

The two United States officers admit that their only connection with the case consisted of the advice they gave Sawyer and the assistance they rendered in making the arrest. Otherwise, they worked up the entire case, which the Federal authorities consider an exceptionally strong one.

Banks was taken to the Los Angeles County Jail tonight, and Woods will be taken there tomorrow. He is being held here in the hope that he will consent to show the hiding place of more moulds and counterfeit coins.

Constable Sawyer has been working on the case for five or six weeks.

When he first tipped him up, he, of course, not say, but he closely watched the suspected men, who conducted their operations with great caution. They made frequent trips into the mountains, and it is supposed that at some remote spot on the side of Old Baldy they made their bogus money. Their arrest was made today immediately they had returned from the mountains, and was the result of a search made of Woods' house
just prior to his return.

The officers discovered many moulds,
and a quantity of counterfeit coins, and then quietly waited until the suspected men returned. The connection Banks had with the crime is not fully known, as yet, but Constable Sawyer says he has sufficient evidence to convict both prisoners.

The accused men both have families,
and have been working in packing-houses in this vicinity all season.

LEFT FOUR WIDOWS.

"LORD DOUGLAS" BIGAMIST.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ASHEVILLE (N. C.) Aug. 4.—Two letters and a photograph received yesterday from Fort Worth, Texas, indicate that the body of an Englishman which has laid unidentified in a receiving vault in this city for nine months is that of a man who claimed to be "Lord Douglas," but who was, in fact, known to the police of Fort Worth as a bigamist. The photograph and description at the body here raise perfectly as far as can be ascertained
by a short examination.

The letters, which are from Mrs. B.
E. A. Douglas, of Fort Worth to the chief of police here and from Mrs.
Louise H. Douglas of Lambert's

Point, Va., to Mrs. Douglas of Texas, contain evidence of the statement that Douglas was married to at least four women—the two Mrs. Douglas known at present and women in California and Colorado from whom the first Mrs.
Douglas has heard. All the women claim, according to the letters, to have been deserted shortly after marriage, and Mrs. B. E. A. Douglas declares that Douglas robbed her of all her money and jewelry.

SUICIDE HOLDS WILCOX POEM.

SLOPPY EFFUSION ON DESPAIR HIS INCENTIVE.

Two Men Become Self-ayers, One Taking Poison and the Other Using a Pistol—Both Victims of Illness and Poverty, and One a Pensioner of Hebrew Society.

With a sloppy Ella Wheeler Wilcox
poem of despair clutched in his hand, Nelson B. Carlton, 45 years of age, formerly an employe of the Cudahy Tacking Company, suicided by taking strychnine in a room in the lodging-house at No. 215 Boyd street Friday night, succumbing to dependency due to illness and poverty.

The body was discovered yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock when an attendant of the lodging-house peeped over the transom of room No. 21, and discovered the half-clad body of the lodger stretched across the bed. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide.

Owing to failing health and the difficulty of making both ends meet with a weekly expense account of $125 absorbing an income of $1 every seven days, Jacob Levin, a Russian Jewish tailor put two thirty-two caliber bullets close to his heart in his room at
No. 641 Banning street, at 7:40 o'clock last night.

Levin was a victim of tuberculosis and came to Los Angeles about six weeks ago, ill and destitute. He took a room in the family of Hirsch Degorgov, and it was while the family was at supper that Levin retired to his room and fired the shots which ended his life.

The suicide had been a pensioner of the United Hebrew Charity Society during his residence here, and left a letter in Hebrew addressed to A. Fansler, No. 340 East Twenty-first street,
New York, in which he bade good-by to all his friends, and thanked all for their kindness to him during his illness and destitution, saying that he was tired of living and had decided to end all.

MERCHANTS IN MANY CITIES BIT.

MONEY-ORDER SWINDLER AR-RESTED IN CHICAGO.

Roberts Raked in Thousands of Dollars by Method Well Worn With Use While Traveling Over Country
With a Sample Case—"Lord Douglas" a Bigamist.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Charged with swindling merchants in twenty-one cities out of thousands of dollars, Morman E. Roberts, alias money-order raider and forger, was arrested last night at a sub-postal station. Roberts said he was a salesman until a few months ago. He is 37 years old and comes from New York, but has a wife living in Baltimore.

Roberts' method has not differed from that of several other swindlers, including one woman, who have been sent to the penitentiary from Chicago within the last three years. The forger buys a money order at a sub-station, usually for 25 cents, and payable to some other person. Then all the writing is erased with chemicals and the blanks filled out for any amount under $100. In Chicago, the signature of Postmaster Coyne was forged. The raided order then is offered by the swindler to some business house in exchange for a small purchase, and the remainder, which the forger receives, represents the amount of his dishonest gain.

Roberts' itinerary included New York, Boston, Providence, R. I.; Pawtucket, R. I.; Woonsocket, R. I.; London, CL; Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, York, Pa.; Norfolk and Richmond, Va.; Cincinnati and Dar-ten, O.; Indianapolis, Chicago and Milwaukee.

"ROOMERS" WERE ROBBERS.

MANY CHICAGO HOUSES ROBBED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward Burdard, 19 years old, who was arrested with a gang of three men and two women charged with committing wholesale robberies over the city, confessed to Chief De-mond today that the gang had robbed 200 houses. He refused to tell where they were, but told the chief that he would turn State's evidence and turn up much of the booty if guaranteed that he would not be prosecuted.

Burdard detailed to the chief the method of the gang's operations. He said he and the only one of the gang not arrested would go to a rooming-house that promised to be a good find and engage a room. After they had become familiar with the premises they would invite their accomplices to visit them. The visitors would ransack the house, and the roomers would disappear.

Non-drying House Wrecked.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 4.—John Markeley, a hop raiser of Yolo county, whose ranch is located several miles up the river from this city, today told of the wrecking of the hop-drying house owned by his brother, Charles, by giant powder. The damage will amount to several hundreds of dollars.
Markley said the giant powder had been placed in one of the pipes of the kiln, but he did not have any idea who had committed the deed.

Turned on Gas; All for Best.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—"It is all for the best. I die happy." This was the brief message left by Mrs. Gilbert J. Sweet, who ended her life by inhaling illuminating gas in her apartment on Octavia street, some time during last night. She was found dead by her husband, who is unable to assign a cause for her act.

What Hit Ryan?

Looking much as though he had been fed through a thrashing machine, and afterward stood in front of an automobile, J. A. Ryan, of Sausalito, was taken into the Police Station at an early hour this morning from the alley on Third street between Broadway and Hill, covered with blood and with clothes in shreds.

Before whatever it was hit Ryan he had a big chew of tobacco in his cheek. After the cyclone his face checked as though he had swallowed a pumpkin, and his mouth was so effectually closed that he could not get rid of the gulf, and the brown juice of

Store Open This Afternoon and Tonight Till 10 O'clock

It's best to do your Saturday's trading early in the day, but if your duties are such that you cannot get out until evening, the Broadway Department Store is open until 10 o'clock. We give our employees a half holiday Thursday and a week's vacation at full pay.

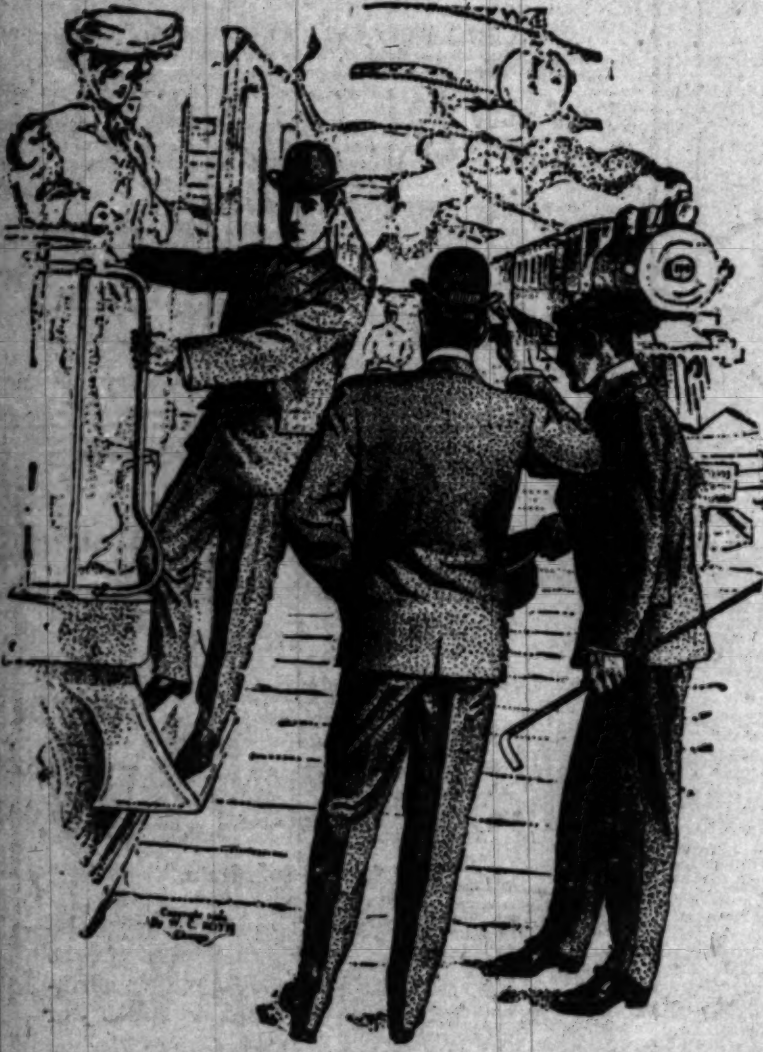

ICE CREAM SODA
With Fruit Syrup..... 5c

Lots of people who come to the "Broadway" almost daily don't know that we serve ice cream soda for 5c. The soda fountain is located in the rear of Aisle 4. We have the best fruit syrups and crushed fruits obtainable—always fresh and pure. You can't get a better glass of ice cream soda in town at any price. Checks may be procured from the cashiers on all the various floors.

Semi-Annual $5.00 Suit Sale

Suits for Men, Young Men and Youths
Most of Them Worth $10.00

Both Single and Double Breasted. Thousands to Choose From. Extra Salesmen in Attendance

In point of crowd bringing and value giving, our Semi-Annual $5.00 Suit Sale is one of the banner events scheduled by the "Broadway." Our last $5.00 Suit Sale, held six months ago, crowded the entire lower floor. Now we have nearly an entire floor devoted to our men's clothing section, which will give us more room to handle the enormous crowds which this sale is sure to bring. We've made preparations for this sale on a grander, broader scale than ever before, having secured thousands of suits from various well-known clothing manufacturers who were anxious to close their season's business. In addition to the enormous number of suits purchased specially for this sale are hundreds of short and broken lines from our regular stock. The materials embrace fancy chevrons, all-wool tweeds, cassimeres and fancy worsteds; as well as a most generous assortment of PLAIN BLACK WORSTEDS AND BLUE SERGES. There are both single and double breasted coats, cut in the latest style and splendidly tailored. Sizes for men, young men and youths. Some of these suits are our regular $10.00 suits, others suits that were made to sell for $10.00 and up to $12.50. This is a broad and far-reaching sale, embracing a greater quantity of ready-to-wear clothing than was ever before shown under one roof in Southern California. Come early and come often; you'll be amazed at the values, and if you're sharp and shrewd will not be content to buy one suit, but will secure several.

Extra Salesmen, Extra Cashiers
Extra Bundle Wrappers

That you may be served with the promptness and courtesy to which you have been accustomed, the "Broadway," we have secured the services of a vast number of extra clothing salesmen. We've also added extra cashiers and a large corps of bundle wrappers. You won't have to wait; no matter how great the crowds you'll be served promptly and intelligently by salesmen who know their business. To save mistakes, we would advise your paying particular attention to the size of the garments which you purchase, and would suggest that you count your change carefully to avoid errors. The sale begins this morning; first choosing will be best, so come as early as you can.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.

LAUREL, (Min.) Aug. 4.—Although approaching a tie-up have developed as a result of the telegraphers on the Great and the Northern Pacific, increasingly serious delays caused in moving traffic. The effect of the strike is becoming manifest in the moving of passengers, which the officials by efforts have been able so far to practically on schedules. In given out at the station at 8. Paul shows that while the morning trains of both lines on time, the middle and afternoon trains have been coming in late. The Northern Pacific Limited, due at 4:30 p.m., will arrive morning at 7:30. The City Express, on the same road, at 5:30 this morning, arrived at nearly five hours late. Train from thirty minutes late. The Southern has been more forward, the "Flyer," due at 2:15, thirty less than three hours late, and mail, due at 10:40, will arrive after midnight.

The outcome of the freight situation is problematical. The officials say they are taking business offered, and will be able to care of it. The operators, on the other hand, are aware of the difficulty and freight is being moved, and that when the heavy movement begins presently the tie-up will result in many cases without food, and refrigerator care is an attempt to make local deliveries possible. No guarantee is made to deliver at points where business has been closed. From the head of the lakes is without delay.

REPORTS WIDELY VARY.

STARTS FOR PERSIA, TO WIN ITS WOMEN.

DR. CLARA H. FIELD,
En route to Persia.

HAMADAN, Persia is a far cry from Los Angeles. And think of the intrepidity of a young woman of twenty-eight, who will brave the journey that she may carry peace to the long-suffering women of Hamadan, and that she may instill into their souls the learning which she has been trained to impart.

A Los Angeles girl is about to try it, and she will doubtless succeed, for so far whatever this charming and serious minded girl has essayed to do fortune has smiled.

This brave and talented young woman is Dr. Clara H. Field, a daughter of Mrs. Helen M. Field, of No. 720 South Hope street. She expects to start in ten days for Hamadan, whither she has been sent by the Presbyterian Board as Medical Missionary and will there take charge of a hospital for women.

For the last five or six years Miss Field has been in the East studying. She graduated from the Los Angeles High School, where she always stood high and was a gifted musician besides. Dr. Field has the distinction of having been born in the Fiji Islands her father having been a sea captain, and there it was that she first learned to care for missionary work. Though she only lived there as a little girl, still the love was instilled in her soul and she has always been interested in nursing and the teaching of the Bible.

Directly after her graduation from the high school she was sent East to study music as this seemed to be her reigning gift. After attending a little over a year, a devoted student of music she decided to take a course in medicine. In 1903 she graduated from the Miami Medical College of Cincinnati, one of the best institutions of its kind in the country. Since then she has devoted herself to Bible study and the part of the missionary has been here.

One of the many honors heaped on this young woman is the scholarship which Miss Helen Gould gave her in a Bible study class under a splendid teacher in New York.

The mission which has but lately found Dr. Field, was won beside a large number of contestants, for she was obliged to take examinations under J. F. Kennedy and W. J. Hesthal, merchants of San Francisco, are registered at the Potter, having come down the coast in Mr. Lynch's White automobile.

Mrs. Fred Harvey, wife of the manager of the Harvey eating houses of the Santa Fe railroad, Mrs. Y. B. Richards and daughter, Miss Richards, all of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in the city yesterday morning, and will remain for a day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pridham, of Los Angeles, who have been at the Potter for two months left yesterday for the north.

Miss Ruth V. Adams and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jackson, society people of San Francisco and Burlingame, are among the recent arrivals at the Potter.

John A. Hooper of San Francisco is at the Potter.

der the Presbyterian Missionary and Medical Board, and she was chosen as the one best fitted for the work. Her mission will entail much sacrifice, and it is a comparatively new line of work, too.

Missionaries have studied the means by which they might reach the women of Persia, who are kept in such ignorance and close confinement that it is almost impossible to gain access to them. First-class medical missionaries will heal the poor sick bodies and then through their tender ministrations and loving kindness will win the hearts of their patients, and then will begin the slow and tedious task of teaching the religion of Christ to their poor dark-skinned souls.

In order to be able to meet all the requirements of this position, Dr. Field will be required to spend one year in studying Arabic, Assyrian and Persian. After that she will teach these women medicine and other necessary things. Doubtless it will not be difficult for Dr. Field to master these languages, as she is already something of a linguist, and numbers among her accomplishments the art of speaking "Fiji," which is a difficult and rare attainment.

Dr. Field will be in this city for ten days with her mother. Last evening she was the honored guest at a charming dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S. Tupper of Harvard boulevard, and next week a number of other affairs have been planned for this same interesting visitor.

Next week she will journey to Philadelphia and from there set sail with a party of friends who are bound for the same place. They will cross the water to Europe and tarry in London, Liverpool and many other interesting points of England, and passing on will visit in Rouen; and Paris will be another point not missed.

From the southern countries of Europe they will penetrate into Russia, visiting Moscow and many of the interesting cities along the way, finally leaving Europe and stepping over the oriental border, traversing Persia to reach their far destination of Hamadan.

On this trip all expenses are paid, and in Persia the expenses are also undertaken by the Presbyterian Board of New York.

MISS MAE KING, the Riverside candidate, made the highest score yesterday in the scholarship race, working herself up the cash prize.

Arthur Carpenter, who continues to be the second place, was next in order of points yesterday, reporting 375. Then came the two contestants of Azusa, Orestes Orfila of Tucson, sent to 300 points, and Amber L. Day of Yuma reported 275 credits. The Yuma girl just came into the race, but is making excellent progress.

Mable Soule continues to lead the contest, and yesterday reported 3225 points. Other scores worthy of mention are as follows: Georgia Brunjes, 2825; by the day Myrtle Varnhy, 2615; Helen Pitner, 2440; Louise Scherer, 2400; Hazel Doyle, 1455; Iva Engel, 1225; Harold C. Beeson, 1081; Robert Walker, 1000; Vivian Hassett, 1000.

There were twenty-nine changes in the relative positions of the contestants as they stand in the score list. The changes are as follows: Myrtle Graham, from 14 to 15; Albert Capron, 15 to 17; Jessie Mae King, 17 to 14; Iva Engel, 18 to 19; Emma Brunjes, 19 to 21; Anna Tag, 21 to 22; Tessa Tag, 22 to 23; Theodore Leroy Miller, 23 to 24; Meta Brunjes, 24 to 32; Marks, 32 to 33; Myrtle Varnhy, 33 to 38; Jefferson, 38 to 41; Charles Yolesias, 41 to 42; Charles Yolesias, 42 to 49; Thomas E. Green, 49 to 47; Frank Tag, 47 to 50; Lee Ramsay, 49 to 51; Myrtle Marcus, 50 to 49; Myrtle McCaconsiderable assistance from Brawley, her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. J. Varney, gathering subscriptions for her there. Miss Marks needs all the help she can get, as she has no very large towns to draw upon.

Gusie Marcus, the little girl who was kept indoors during the first part of the contest by sickness in the family, now finds it quite difficult to make satisfactory progress in the race. People who have been saving coupons and subscriptions for a contestant to be decided on along toward the close of the contest cannot do better than to give this little lady a chance to state her reasons for being in the contest to get a scholarship.

Elise Jean Brenner went to Monterey yesterday and took fifteen subscriptions as fast as she could write them. Business men of that prosperous place took an interest in her ambitions and took her along the street helping her collect. Either Zuber took the other side of the same street and did about the same amount of business as did Elise Brenner. Both girls were elated over their successes in going abroad.

Joe Colores reports from Tucson, Ariz.: "There is a great demand to vote for Orestes Orfila. I am not able to keep stock in contest receipts. Yesterday a fine budget of subscriptions came for Orfila from San Diego, Cal. The Tucson boy has friends at all points of the compass."

Elise Jean Brenner feels rather aggrieved because she has not been lucky enough to capture a single year's subscription, and that is what counts a thousand points at a jump for a new subscriber. Elise has a big list of coupon contributors, though, and if rather slow, this method is exceedingly sure. She is after a scholarship in the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music. She is now taking special school lessons in order to be able to enter the eighth grade in the fall, and the preparation of these lessons absorbs about half her time, so to keep up with the procession of business in this contest, Elise has to work at lightning speed when she gets the chance. She has just reached the 5000 mark.

JESSIE MAY KING, Riverside contestant, who works early and late every day.

In the long list and is now aiming for a line that has five figures in it. She lives on 20th street, near Maple avenue.

THE LITTLE THESPIAN. Karl Marks wants a scholarship in the Los Angeles Military Academy, and he wants a cash prize, too, so he can get himself a bicycle. He rides his mother's wheel on his canvassing expeditions, but Karl says it is old and wobbles good deal, and besides that, what boy wants to ride his mother's wheel? He wants one of his own, of course. Karl comes of a theatrical family and hence professional people are interested and are helping him a good deal. His mother appears under the name of Carroll Marshall on the Burbank and Belasco programmes, and his father, Willie Marks, plays at the Burbank and Garden Grove who are helping him, too. He is a native Californian and lives at No. 816 Ceres avenue. He goes to the Ninth-street school and was promoted in June to the seventh grade, which speaks pretty well for the scholarship of the little fellow, for he looks about 10 years old, although he says he is older.

RIVERSIDE'S MAY KING. Contestants for The Times' scholarship should keep an eye out for the little girl who is making so thorough and successful canvases of Riverside. Jessie May King is her name, and as her picture evinces, she is the dearest and demurest little maid imaginable. She is 13 years old, and has just graduated the past year from the Riverside Grammar School and is now anxious to take a musical course in the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Art. She has a soprano voice of rare promise and seeks an opportunity to have it cultivated by competent teachers. In this laudable purpose she is receiving generous assistance from Riverside, who gave her such material assistance a day or two ago that she jumped from twenty-fourth to thirtieth place. And the little lady says nothing unkindly about the thirteen either. She has already received one five-year and one four-year subscription, and has a host of friends clipping for her. Jessie May begins canvassing every morning at 9 o'clock, and with an hour's intermission at noon, works up to 6 o'clock at night. She has the hearty cooperation of her teachers and her many friends in her effort to secure a musical education.

PRIZES AT STAKE. The contestant having the highest score at the close of the contest will have first choice of the following scholarships. The second highest will have second choice and so on to the bottom of the list. From time to time the list of prizes will be enlarged as the number of contestants multiply.

The Times already has one and in some instances two scholarships in every one of the following institutions. Every school is considered excellent in its line: University of Southern California, Throop Polytechnic Institute, DeBolsion School of Expression, Occidental College, St. Vincent's College, Los Angeles Military Academy, Cuneo School of Expression, Los Angeles School of Art and Design, Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Art, Boston College of Expression and Physical Training, Department of Oratory, University of Southern California, Miss Seale's Wright, Dean, Los Angeles College of Fine Arts, Los Angeles Business College, Southern California Business College.

for Promoters. Well, well, here comes the same old hoary-headed "benefit" graft! It is the ancient tale of a "benefit entertainment"—this time for the "Door of Hope"—and it has proven a big business for the diamond-bedecked ladies who make a business of "charity." More than $2000 has been collected on this proposition, and the workers are still holding on like leeches. Of this amount the "Door of Hope" is to get a paltry $100—in fact, it has only a certainty of $50, already in hand. The balance is pocketed by the two stylishly dressed women who are engineering the graft. They are "doing the best they can."

PUBLIC SERVICE OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

In order to make this year's estimates fit inside the probable revenue the Council has decided to make sweeping reductions in the estimates of the police, fire, park, street and school departments.

Labor union agitators yesterday attempted to secure the enforcement of an old statute prohibiting contractors on public work from paying their men for extra time. Enforcement of the statute would mean a loss of at least $10 a day to the laborers working on the streets and in the sewers.

A curious case was heard yesterday before Judge James when W. McLean sued to recover $10,000 as damages from W. Wheeler, a youth who used to be in his employ, and was accused of sending defamatory matter through the mail.

A son of the late Charles H. Bush, the main street jeweler, who recently died leaving a large estate, has bobbed up at Washington, D. C., and other developments in the case are imminent.

AT THE CITY HALL.

COUNCIL'S KNIFE WILL CUT DEEP.

MILLION REDUCTION MUST BE MADE IN ESTIMATES.

Police, Fire and Park Departments to Lose Almost Three Hundred Thousand Dollars—Superintendent of Streets and City Engineer are Doomed to Disappointment.

Surface indications at the municipal building broken that, somewhere away down in the depths, the Finance Committee is at work cutting down the estimates of expense for the present fiscal year so as to make them tally exactly with the probable revenue.

Admission to the head of every department to cut estimates to the bone only resulted in producing a budget $1,000,000 greater than any of its predecessors and over $1,500,000 greater than the probable income.

How exceedingly painful is this process of pinning department estimates only those in the inner circles in civil affairs can understand. All hopes of materially reducing the tax rate appear to have gone glimmering.

Just now it looks as though the tax payers of the city are fortunate in having the protection of a charter provision which will not permit the rate to be higher than $1 for each $100 of assessed valuation for municipal revenue. The tax rate has been the extreme limit of the charter provision for the last two years. It will not be higher this year because the Council has not the power to make it higher.

But the latest reducing these estimates $1,500,000 makes the old Hercules myth about the August stable appear almost as a child's tale of a donkey and a cart.

The deficit has already gone forth that a quarter of a million dollars must be shipped out of the city's treasury to the police, fire and parks.

Just where this party can take place without impacting the departments is the active duty is the question that commissioners and the Council must jointly decide.

One of the most formidable obstacles in the way of a material reduction is the indebtedness already incurred of these departments, by consent of the Council. The Fire Commission has agreed at least $200,000 of new apparatus; the contracts have been approved by the Council and the money for the bills must be provided.

Then it will require thirty more men to man that new machinery. All this must be added to the actual running expenses of the department.

Somewhat similar conditions exist in the police department. A number of new subdivisions have been constructed for and an increase in force has been granted. This means a heavy increase in the current expenses. The people will not tolerate cutting down the force and the commissioners are in a quandary as to how they are to reduce the estimate of expense.

Park Commissioner Lamb says that the parks cannot make a creditable appearance this fall and winter if the park estimate is cut. He asserts that the parks are the city's advertising medium and that to cut $25,000 from the estimate of expense for caring for them would mean cutting ten times that much from the city's future revenue. Mr. Lamb says that the estimate of expense for Griffith Park includes the cost of cutting fire breaks over the mountains; if these breaks are not cut the government will not donate trees and shrubs for reforestation.

Yet the Council says that these tree estimates must give up a quarter of a million dollars of "expectations."

Street Superintendent Hanley's estimate of $245,000 is in imminent danger of decapitation. Councilmen say that it is at least $150,000 higher than they can allow. Mr. Hanley has prepared a detailed statement showing that not one dollar can be subtracted from this estimate without a corresponding crippling of the efficiency of the department. But the Councilmen say that it is better to get along with a lame department or two than to finish the fiscal year with a million-dollar deficit.

Charles Cassatt, Davis of the Board of Education yesterday morning made formal protest against any pruning of the estimate of the board of education. He says that the board of education is not a part of the city's budget and that the board of education is not a part of the city's budget and that the board of education is not a part of the city's budget.

Yet all these cuts, and they are on the largest appropriations, do not make up half the prospective deficit. Solving this enigma is the most difficult question that has yet come to the present Council.

But after all there will be a fractional decrease in the tax rate. Last year 40 cents was added to the dollar rate for interest and sinking fund on bonds. This year the increased property assessment will reduce that to probably 25 cents.

MORE UNION ASSININITY.
WOULD FORCE LOWER WAGES.
Labor union agitation over city work has broken out in a new place. Job Harriman and Francis Drake have discovered that street and sewer contractors are paying their men more than $2 a day. The men are not putting up enough to the walking delegates to satisfy their capacious maws and they have started in to secure a general reduction of wages.

A couple of weeks ago a shyder attorney tried to secure a little free advertising by calling attention to the fact that a number of local contractors are working their men more than eight hours a day. The men themselves petitioned city officials to take no cognizance of him. They explained that they receive from $1.25 to $1.50 a day for nine hours work where if they worked but eight hours they would receive only $2 a day, the scale fixed by statute.

Working more than eight hours on a public contract is a technical violation of the State law. This is well known both to the contractors and the workmen. But the workmen have been willing to labor an extra hour, provided they get extra pay for it; and the contractors have been willing to pay for it.

There are few if any $2-a-day men working on public jobs except on the public sewer. It is asserted that all the street contractors who work their men nine hours pay them from $2.25 to $2.50 a day. The men are glad to have the opportunity of working the additional hour as the extra money at the end of the week comes in exceedingly handy. No laborers on the outside street work more than eight hours. But the union has gone forth from the central labor council that no more shall men labor nine hours on public improvements. The labor bosses say that they will swear to complaints against every contractor who violates the eight hour law.

The contractors show no disposition to test the constitutionality of the statute, which is regarded by a number of leading attorneys as illegal. The hours of the men have been reduced from nine hours to eight and their wages have suffered a corresponding decrease. The change means a loss of at least $10 a day to laborers now employed on public work in this city.

No petitions have ever gone to the Council from the working men complaining that they are "forced" to earn a little extra money each day. The workmen themselves cry that all they want is to be left alone. They are willing to go to work an hour earlier in the morning in return for the extra compensation.

But the walking delegates, disappointed in the attempt to secure hush money, have united in an endeavor to reduce the wages of the men who work on the streets and in the sewers.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

HE SUES YOUTH FOR DAMAGES.

DECORATOR TRIES FOR TEN THOUSAND FOR LIBEL.

One of the Oddest Trials Ever Seen in Local Courts, With One Witness on Each Side, and the Defendant, W. L. Wheeler, Absolutely Without Resources.

William L. Wheeler is a youth yet in his teens, and he is wondering how he is going to pay a judgment of $10,000 in a libel suit—that is, if Judge James should give judgment against him. He hasn't got as many cents.

William McLean, staff decorator and plaster-cast maker, brought this suit against Wheeler, who for a time was in his employ, for an alleged libel contained in a letter sent by Wheeler to Attorney Keefe, McLean's lawyer. This letter had been sent in response to a lawyer's letter during the young fellow for payment of certain moneys advanced by McLean, and in it Wheeler with all his foolish impetuosity of youth set things down in black and white that were not wise to say, whether true or false.

The letter reflected severely upon McLean, and the statements were made as a reason why Wheeler would not pay the demand until he saw by McLean's own books that he owed the amount.

When the case came to trial yesterday, instead of there being a long string of witnesses as is usual in libel cases, save for the attorney, there were just two people in court—the plaintiff and defendant. Attorney Keefe was loaded to the guards with law points, and he wanted the matter disposed of out of hand, but Judge James wanted to hear just a little about the alleged facts which the other side contended were not fact.

Wheeler told his own version of the sum of $4 a week he worked for McLean and slept in the rear of the shop. Regarding the alleged libelous matter he stuck to his guns and gave a detailed statement regarding them. He said that before the Tax Assessor came around McLean told him to keep the doors and windows in the rear of the place closed tight so that the Assessor wouldn't see the stock. When the Assessor actually arrived McLean showed the man over the place, but didn't take him to certain areas in the rear, and when in passing the Assessor noticed Wheeler and inquired of McLean about the boy's poll tax the latter told him that Wheeler was under arrest.

"As soon as the man was gone," said Wheeler, "McLean came in to me and said: 'I've saved you $2; that's good enough for it.' And he said, 'of fact,' continued the witness, 'he had saved me nothing, for I was not getting enough to live on, and he would himself have had to pay the poll tax. Anyway, I told him that I didn't want him to lie for me.'"

After that Wheeler was asked about the more serious insinuation he had made in his letter that McLean was a party to the theft of certain lumber from a lumber yard. He said that one day he went in the wagon with a certain employee of McLean's named Arthur C. Canner's yard, and there the man loaded the wagon up. Going away for a moment or two the man came along and told Wheeler to drive the wagon, and there he was joined by his brother-in-law. Arriving at McLean's yard the lumber was unloaded and the employee said to McLean, when the latter came along, "See that pile of lumber I've stolen for you, Mac; isn't that all right?"

To which Wheeler said McLean answered: "Yes, yes, but see that they don't catch you at it."

After Wheeler had told all this Attorney Corbin announced that his case was dismissed. Attorney Keefe told the court that he had no right to go on with his case, and he asked for judgment in McLean's favor on the pleadings. "Yes, yes," he said, "but see that they don't catch you at it."

Attorney Keefe went over the exact ground covered by Wheeler in the first instance, and to each question McLean answered "No." There were about a dozen "no's," and after a short cross-examination, McLean climbed down from off the witness stand, and that was an end of his case.

Honors were given as to the facts.

Each party had testified diametrically opposite to what the other one had said. But Mr. Keefe is sure that he has a dead clinch on the law, and both sides are to file authorities and allow the court to go over them at his leisure.

Meanwhile Wheeler is the best off, for in any case he has absolutely nothing to lose.

ARMED JUVENILES.

CARRY BILLES INTO COURT.

Clyde Gribbel and Everett Burnett are the names of the two chunky boys who were arrested on a criminal charge and were temporarily held at the Detention Home, and it was Gribbel who struck Maj. H. Oliver, one of the guardians of the peace at the home, over the head with a chair in an effort to make a break for freedom. Though violent the blow was not hard enough, and the major was enabled to take his keys and get on the other side of the iron door.

While this tussle was going on—and it didn't take more than about thirty seconds—Burnett was sitting close by with a pistol look on his face. It is believed that he was fully aware of the plan to break out of the Detention Home, but it was contemplated to give Oliver the blow strong enough to put him out of business and then the boys would have got his keys and had things their own way.

Both of these lads were before Judge Wilbur yesterday in the Juvenile Court. As is usually the case the court called the lads to his side so as to talk with them at short range. In answering some question put to them both lads leaned over somewhat, and Deputy Sheriff Wilson noticed some of the things they were saying. He quickly walked up to them without disturbing their smiles with Judge Wilbur, and slipping his hands under the boys' coats drew forth from each the leg of a chair.

These "billes" were stowed away by the boys in their hip pockets, and how they contrived to secure them is a puzzle. After the trouble at the Detention Home they were both taken over to the County Jail, but they managed to hide away the weapons that might in emergency be dangerous. Judge Wilbur didn't waste much more time on this duo of young desperados, but ordered that Gribbel be committed to the Fremont School of Industry at Lone during his minority and that Burnett be sent to Whittier for the same period of time.

BUSH ESTATE.

SON IS ANNOUNCED.

It is true that a man never knows how many relatives he has, and though as a general rule close relatives know of one another's existence, even to that there are exceptions. In the case of Charles H. Bush, the North Main street jeweler, who died leaving an estate valued at about $100,000, is a case in point.

The relatives heard from heretofore were A. L. Bush, a brother, 73 years of age, and living at Escondido; Martha C. Tullis, a sister, aged 74, and Althea A. Kinyer, a sister, aged 68, living at Dayton, O. Oliver G. Tullis, a nephew of the deceased, was nominated as the one to whom letters of administration should be issued, and in the petition it was alleged that there was no will.

Then Public Administrator McGarrin took a hand in the matter, on the ground that there was no relative resident in this state entitled to administer upon the estate. The whole matter came up before Judge Wilbur yesterday, and at the last minute a telegram was received from Washington, D. C., signed by one Philo L. Bush, the son of the deceased. When the son of this communication announced himself as a son of the deceased and asked that the matter be referred over one week, so as to give him time to arrive in the city. The court thereupon continued the hearing for one week.

Another rather curious circumstance yesterday was the intimation in court that there is probably a will, though the petition has been filed for probate to date.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.
LAURA RECAPS. A colored woman named Laura Scott, charged with having robbed C. Carson of $15 and a gold watch and chain, protested her innocence and determined yesterday morning to go to trial. Before afternoon she pleaded guilty before Judge San Quentin. When arrested she had a ticket for El Paso and was about to go.

TO BUY RANCHES. The California Fruit Growers' Association of Los Angeles has filed its certificate of bonded indebtedness in the sum of $50,000. The money is to be used to make certain purchases of fruit land at San Bernardino and also in this county.

CYRUS DIVORCE. Mabel Cyrus was yesterday granted a divorce from H. W. Cyrus by Judge James, on the ground of desertion. They were married in Vancouver in September, 1901, and a year ago Cyrus abandoned his wife.

INSANITY COMMISSIONERS. Upon the nomination of Judge James, Drs. E. M. Pallette and E. H. Garrett have been added to the list of medical men enrolled as commissioners on insanity.

HERCULES AGAIN. Yesterday Amos Hercules was to have been sentenced for life for murder, but Attorney Wilder asked for time to prepare affidavits to sustain one clause in his motion for a new trial, made yesterday. This clause refers to the evidence discovered, but it is assumed that it pertains to the insanity of the defendant, and in that event the court will regard it merely as cumulative and it will have no effect. Judge Smith so stated, but granted the attorney until Monday morning.

M'KEE HAPPY. H. V. McKee was before Judge Smith yesterday charged with having forged a check on the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank for $7.50 and to which he pleaded guilty. The District Attorney represented that McKee had been previously displayed in the young man he had investigated his character thoroughly and was satisfied McKee might safely be placed on probation rather than have his future by sending him to State's prison. Judge Smith gave the young fellow some advice and placed him on probation for two years.

BONDED DEBT. The Commercial Warehouse Company has filed a certificate of $75,000 bonded in indebtedness.

HELD TO ANSWER. Glen Russell, a colored man, was yesterday held by Justice Pierce to answer in the Superior Court a charge of grand larceny with a prior conviction of petit larceny. He is charged with having stolen a bicycle.

Summer Colds.

Laxative Bromo Quinine, the world-wide Cold Cure, removes the cause. Call for the full sized box for the signature of E. A. Grove. Price 25c.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

LILY FOLDS PETALS TIGHT.

NOTORIOUS DIVE "CLUB" MUST KEEP CLOSED DOORS.

Its Manager and Secretary Plead Guilty to Violation of the Saloon License Ordinance, and are Fined by Police Judge Chambers—Surrendered its Charter.

The Lily Club has gone dry. The charter has been surrendered and the managers have promised to be good. The club will hereafter remain only as the remembrance of a bad stretch in the nostrils of decent citizens.

Police Judge Chambers yesterday had the case before him. On assurance of Prosecuting Attorney Beebe and Attorney LeCompte Davis that they were confident the club would not be reopened, he allowed its manager and Secretary, William Marks and E. Rapold, respectively, to plead guilty to the charge of having violated the saloon ordinance, and fined them $100 each.

Justice Chambers discharged the five other men who were arrested, without acting as waiters in the disreputable joint, and five young women, who were captured in the raid on the place, were also allowed to go free, and the charge of vagrancy against them was dismissed.

It is believed the "club" is now thoroughly broken up, and that the police will have no more trouble from it.

MINES AND MINING.

SEARCHLIGHT PAYS BIG TAX.

MORE COLLECTED ON BULLION THAN ANYWHERE ELSE.

But Southern Lincoln County is Complaining of Getting Little in Return—Local Men Get Bonanza at Bullfrog—Syndicate Bonds Cowboy Mine in Amalie.

"The bullion tax records of Nevada show that Searchlight today pays more money in this way to the State than any other town in the State. This includes Goldfield, Tonopah and the Comstock mines. The tax is on net returns," said Thomas Gahagan, an operator of the southern Lincoln county camp last night. "Yet we get nothing to show for it. All of it goes elsewhere, and the camps in the south are left to care for themselves."

Mr. Gahagan's statement was called forth by a question as to what was being done to get water on the desert in the vast wilderness of Lincoln county, where so far as reports go one well seems to be about all that has been attempted or even talked of.

"There are five deals now pending in the Searchlight district by which properties will be taken up by Los Angeles parties in the near future. One deal was closed today on four claims adjoining the property of the Boulder company. I do not know the names of those interested. Two others involving groups of seven and nine claims, respectively, adjoining the Boulder are pending.

"The Searchlight Bank and Trust Company has just opened for business, and it is generally understood that the money has been raised for the new railroad from Bock. This is a better route than by Ivanpah on account of the grades.

"The Searchlight Mining and Milling Company, a Los Angeles company, has just begun the extension of a rich ore shoot they were in some two months ago. This company is just getting its new mill up, and will be running ere within the next thirty days.

"On my own property, the Black Hawk, I have a shaft down 120 feet, and have been cross-cutting. I shall sink seventy-five feet further at once, as it is well known that at least 300 feet has had to be attained in nearly all searchlight mines before the good pay ore was struck. The Parallel is the only one that paid from the grass roots. I am getting very satisfactory returns so far.

LOCAL MEN'S BONANZA.

The Kismet Gold Mining Company of this city, in which P. W. Rosa, cashier of the postoffice, Herman Eschick of the Commercial National Bank, H. J. Stevens, C. J. Lehman and other Los Angeles men are interested, has received word that in sinking a new shaft on its property at Bullfrog, ore running $40 a ton and growing richer with every foot of depth, has been struck. In this it is not the obtaining of fabulous returns from the assay of few selected specimens that delights the owners of the property, but that the ledge which carries these values is reported to be 150 feet wide. This too is at a depth of only twenty-five feet.

Should the expectations and claims of the Kismet mine be substantiated, the results, the Kismet, in the opinion of mining men, may develop into one of the greatest producers in Nevada or elsewhere for that matter. One assaying $75,000 was found on the surface. As to the real extent of the recent finds, as in the case of all new properties, time and development will show how permanent they may be.

ANGELENOS IN AMALIE.
A Los Angeles syndicate has just taken a bond for $150,000 on the famous Cowboy mine in the Amalie district of Kern county, owned chiefly by Bakerville people. The principal owners are H. A. Bridget, A. Well, J. E. Miller, J. R. Ferris, E. R. Studer and Hump Williams, all Los Angeles men. Dr. Bryson of this city. The names of the purchasers have not yet been made public.

The Cowboy mine is said to have paid for all its development ever since the first work was done, notwithstanding the fact that the ore is all base, requiring shipment to San Francisco for smelting. No stopping has been done in the pay vein.

BALTIMORE SOLD.
An eastern syndicate has purchased the Baltic mine near Randburg, for $75,000, and work will be resumed after a shutdown of several months. A fifty-ton cyanide plant has been ordered to be built on the property. The property is to be in charge of the former General Manager Aberdele of the Grand Central mine at Grass Valley. A 500-foot shaft will be sunk on the ledge. Water will be developed and piped from Cudda-back Lake.

Annual Black Silk Sale

In every city, East and West, there is one BEST store for silks. In Los Angeles, it's Coulter's—the "Silk Center" of the Pacific Southwest.

This establishment sells more silks than any other local concern; more than any other three houses between San Francisco and San Diego, outside of Los Angeles.

But what we were going to say is that our ANNUAL SALE OF BLACK SILKS begins Monday morning; decidedly the most important trade event of the year.

Preparations for this sale have been conducted along broader lines than ever before—and we feel safe in promising THE BEST VALUES WE HAVE EVER OFFERED.

The fact that orders were placed months ago for many lines, enabling the mills to operate during the dull season, induced price concessions that would otherwise have been practically impossible to obtain. Other makers wanted money—and were glad to clear their holdings at about actual cost of production.

These savings are responsible for the EXTREMELY LOW PRICES (quality considered) which will prevail during this sale—ranging from 20 to 50 per cent. under regular valuations.

Every wanted width and weave—in a variety of finishes. In Tulle alone we will show from twelve to fifteen different qualities.

A complete list of prices will be published in Monday morning's papers.

Other dealers will doubtless imitate our methods—and some may have the temerity to suggest prices; but they can't match the merchandise. We invite comparison.

Out-of-town customers can take advantage of our Black Silk Sale by promptly writing for samples.

Seduction Charged

Arkansas Young Man Who Has Been Working Here is Arrested in San Diego.

Sheriff J. B. King of Clarksville, Ark., arrived in the city last night bringing with him from San Diego J. B. Quick, arrested there on charges from Chief Hammel, to answer to the charge of seduction under promise of marriage.

The Arkansas officer will leave today with his prisoner, who will answer to the charge preferred by the family of 18-year-old Jennie Ransom of Clarksville.

Quick, who is the son of a wealthy farmer, came to Los Angeles when he fled the consequences of his act a year ago, and secured employment with the Purity Ice Cream Company. When on the point of being arrested on information received from Arkansas, he was given a tip and skipped to San Diego.

ON WHICH SIDE IS THE MAYOR?

MUNICIPAL WATER SYSTEM IS LONG TIME COMING.

Passions Politicians Look With Suspicion Upon Supposed Attitude of Administration—Santa Fe Railroad May Be Damaged Because of Work Which Crippled Engineer.

PASADENA, Office of the Times, Aug. 5.—An important conference between the Mayor and Council and directors of the Pasadena Lake Vineyard Land & Water Company last evening developed the fact that the latter concerns want some assurance that it is going to be reimbursed by the municipality before any work is done. In other quarters this is taken to mean that the administration is seeking to put forth another stumbling block in the way of municipal ownership.

As an outcome of the meeting last night it was announced by President Parker of the water company that the question would be referred to City Attorney Fitzgerald. It is expected that the city will make a sufficient sum from the water bond issue to pay for the projected improvements.

Politicians who have followed the course of the present administration in its handling of the water issue are outspoken in their belief that the action is blind to the public interest. It appears, however, that some permanent improvements to the equipment of the Lake Vineyard plant will be necessary, and the plan can be transferred in good shape.

President Parker gave out an interview earlier in the day, saying that it is simply a business proposition with the company, as it is not desired to go ahead and spend the stockholders' money on improvements which will be repaid to the city's purchase when the company is reimbursed.

The decision of City Attorney Fitzgerald is being awaited by the directors of the company, to see if his action fulfills their opinion that the administration is seeking to block the water issue.

WHO'S TO BLAME?

The opinion seems general that the city will not be a defendant in any prospective damage suits the Santa Fe may bring as a result of the wreck in which Engineer Luce was killed. City Attorney Fitzgerald has secured a number of affidavits from witnesses of the accident, and is expected to back up his position before the city is in any way responsible.

The city cannot be made a party to a suit, because the city has no liability to make improvements on a private crossing. It is understood that the subcontractors who are alleged to have let the dirt on the track were in the employ of the contractor. The latter is required by law to make the improvements along its right of way to correspond with the rest of the railway.

Former Senator C. M. Simpson, the local attorney for the Santa Fe, admitted that when a street is being improved it is entirely the contractor's duty to see that the street is properly graded, and if a railroad runs through it he is responsible for keeping the tracks clear of obstructions. The only possible cause for a case against the city would be a faulty procedure in the letting of the contract.

Engineer George Luce, the wreck victim, is improving at the hospital, and it is stated that unless unforeseen complications arise he should again be able to resume his work. Luce appears to be one of those railroad men who have a "hoodoo." His present dilemma is being handled by Dr. F. P. Rowland yesterday started a subscription paper for the relief of the injured man's family. Dr. Rowland generously turned over his salary demands during the last month he was in office, and others graciously responded. It is said that Luce was in a terrible wreck, back East several years ago, from the effects of which he only recently recovered.

RAILROADS FIGHT TAX.

Assessment of railroad property is apparently the biggest problem before the local equalization board. Agents of the board for the Salt Lake and Capital, for the Santa Fe, each appeared before the board yesterday in behalf of their respective companies, and entered emphatic protest against being compelled to submit to local taxation. The claim was advanced that inasmuch as the railroads have already been taxed by the State Board of Equalization, the local property they should not again be taxed.

PICNIC PLANS.

Plans for Pasadena's annual picnic are assuming shape and the programme committee promises a great outing to all those who attend the event at Venice on August 21. This committee held a meeting last night and further perfected arrangements, although the complete schedule of events cannot be announced until next week. The committee wishes to correct the erroneous impression that a change of cars will be necessary in order to reach Venice on the date of the picnic. The Southern Pacific has made arrangements to extend its lines direct to Venice so that there will be no change of cars and that the picnic train will be in effect. A tug of war between teams from two local grocery stores is one of the features of the picnic. The picnic is a crusade against wheelmen.

CRUSADE AGAINST WHEELMEN.

Chief of Police Pinkham has issued emphatic orders to his men to arrest every bicyclist caught riding on the sidewalk and the department is determined to put a stop to this sort of public nuisance. Officer Joseph Schultz, the latest acquisition to the force, is making a record for this class of arrests. The previous figure of five in two days being augmented by the arrest of two more offenders yesterday. Justice Cameron has assessed a fine of $2 for each offense.

BRIEFLY MENTIONED.

Directors and stockholders of the North Pasadena Land and Water Company held a meeting yesterday evening for the purpose of discussing the city's offer to take over the plant and entire equipment of the company for a consideration of $80,000. As an outcome of the meeting it is announced

LONG BEACH.

CHRISTIANS AT BUSINESS.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 4.—The Christian assembly settled down to business today and after a praise service Dr. W. B. Conner of Redlands gave a Bible study on the "Acts of the Apostles." George Ringo of Riverside spoke on raising the standard of pastoral relations which led to a spirited discussion led by A. N. Glover of Orange and H. E. White of San Bernardino. In the afternoon Rev. Sumner T. Martin spoke on raising the standard of stewardship.

Saturday is to be Christian Endeavor day under the leadership of Rev. Skidmore. Robert P. Shepherd of Pomona will speak on "The Book of Romans" and Walter L. Martin of Los Angeles on "Spiritual Investments." A song service will be led by Robert Aubrey of Los Angeles. Reports will be heard from various societies and in the evening Leon Warner of Los Angeles will lead the devotional service and Rev. A. K. Wright of Monrovia will preach.

SANTA MONICA.

DON'T WANT TO ABANDON.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 4.—When the city annexation election was held a few days ago a petition was pending before the County Supervisors praying that Twenty-third street be vacated from the Southern Pacific tracks on the south to Oregon avenue. At the election this street became a part of the city and the remonstrants who filed their objections to the abandonment of the street, are now making the opinion that the Supervisors will dismiss all proceedings. They hold that it would be unfair for the county to close a street that is no longer under its jurisdiction.

Joseph Simons of the Simons Brick Company is in the East purchasing machinery with which to equip a plant for the manufacture of roofing tiles. This plant is to be installed at the brick factory and will add not a little to the output of the establishment, which is now in successful operation.

Although the Simons Brick Company is in the East purchasing machinery with which to equip a plant for the manufacture of roofing tiles, this plant is to be installed at the brick factory and will add not a little to the output of the establishment, which is now in successful operation.

No tidings come from the missing racketeer, Paul Meur, whose temporary clerk closed out the business in a few hours following Meur's precipitate flight. By the time the Los Angeles Bureau of Trade attached the stock there was scarcely enough of it left to pay the car fare of the deputy sheriff. It begins to look as if Meur had played fair until he had established a credit. It looks also as if he had not always passed under the name of Meur.

The Odd Fellows are seeking new bids for their projected temple on Third street. They now have plans that contemplate the addition of a third story should it be desired.

Tonorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be a four-mile amateur foot race around the cañon's north loop. Those who start are A. Schultz, H. Doyle, H. Schwank, A. Clarke, F. J. Townsend, C. A. Parks and Earl O'Brien.

Recorder Gunderlin today sentenced John Riley to the County Jail for fifty days. The crime was petty larceny and Riley's plea was guilty. It seems the grocery delivery wagons have during recent days been systematically robbed of anything that looked good to a toper. The thefts were committed with a will. The driver was out of sight making a delivery and while the wagon stood at the curb, Riley was arrested just as he had taken a bottle of blackberry juice.

Miss Fern Higgins and Ivan Polhemus were married at the Colorado hotel here last night. Ordinarily the mother of the bride, last night, Mrs. John Higgins, of Santa Monica, and the bride, Miss Fern Higgins, of Santa Monica, were supported by B. W. Bryant, Rev. J. D. Browne performed the ceremony. The young couple departed on a wedding trip to Colorado where they will be the guests of their parents for a few days before taking up their residence at No. 255 Seventh street in this city.

SAN PEDRO.

CURIO FROM THE DEPTHS.

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 4.—United States Engineer R. A. Crawford has in his possession a curious relic which came from the discharge pipe of the government dredge San Pedro and was picked up yesterday. It is a sailor's horn, highly polished, and bearing the carved inscription cut in the bone of "J. E. S. 1874, Santa Africa." Inside the horn are three sailor's needles imbedded in grease, all in an excellent state of preservation, except where the tops have been exposed to salt water.

The schooner Statoyne, which arrived today from Point Arena, is a new type of lumber carrier. She has a lineal motor power and sail, being equipped with two 175-horse-power gasoline engines with twin-screw propellers. By means of this motor power she is able to make good time in calm and adverse winds, but will only enter or leave port on account of the accident.

F. H. Gridley, representing the North American Dredging Company of San Francisco, is taking soundings just outside the entrance to the inner harbor. The government will soon let a contract for the dredging of 60,000 cubic yards of material at this point, and that company desires to place a bid for the work. The first contract for dredging in the inner harbor was completed last year by the same company.

HUNTINGTON PARK.

REORGANIZED COUNTRY CLUB.

HUNTINGTON PARK, Aug. 4.—The Huntington Park Country Club was reorganized last night when Dr. Louis Weber, A. A. Weber, F. H. Tate, C. Kirk and E. R. Allen were appointed trustees. The object of the organization, which has now twenty-five members, is the formation of a general athletic club. Land has been secured and money promised for the erection of suitable buildings. The scheme includes tennis, baseball, basketball and possibly golf. The officers are: President, Will Weber; vice-president, Clyde Hurley; secretary, D. G. Clark; treasurer, C. F. Kirk.

COMMERCIAL BODY.

A call has been issued for a meeting to "form a commercial organization to stimulate interest in the community, to foster and encourage the establishment of industries and to generally promote and protect the interests of the Park." The meeting is to be held at the Signal office, Pacific boulevard, next Monday evening, and the circular is signed by F. H. Tate, editor of the local paper.

"HOTEL CORONADO" IS GREATLY IMPROVED.

HOLLYWOOD. ROADS AT "THE OUTPOST." HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 4.—The work of preparing the picturesque winding roadways at "The Outpost" for oiling has been begun. The base material is crushed gravel taken from the familiar gravel hill at the north end of the tract. The work of oiling, or asphaltizing, is to be done by Gen. Otis, by the Liquid Asphalt Roads Company (Blodgett, White & Baldwin) of No. 408 East Second street, Los Angeles. These road builders will use an exceptionally heavy oil of the Sunset fields, laid on a base composed of crushed and rolled gravel, using as much as three cubic yards of material will absorb, then top-dressed with fine screened gravel or sand, put in place, and rolled with a steam roller, having a firm, smooth surface, devoid of unevenness or stickiness. CATALINA ISLAND.

DIET SEATED ON BENCH.

AYALON, Aug. 4.—Louis Crawford of San Bernardino, while seated on one of the benches in the Metropolitan hotel last evening, suddenly expired. Crawford was the owner of the New York Kitchen Restaurant of San Bernardino, and was here for the benefit of his health, having gotten up from a sick bed three days ago. He came here to spend the night, and he had heard disease and dropsy and in the absence of an autopsy it is supposed heart trouble caused his death. A coroner's inquest will be held tomorrow.

TRACY BOUTHS OF LOS ANGELES.

Tracy Bouths of Los Angeles, took two big Jewish fish, the measured two fine large fish, the smaller weighing 125 pounds and the larger 250 pounds. He was but fifteen minutes in landing the smaller fish, and twenty minutes served to bag the larger one.

G. W. Bagley, with his wife and family in the yacht Evian, are anchored in the bay.

John Fiske of Cleveland, O., who takes great interest in the scientific study of shells, has engaged Mexican Jos. and is now devoting his time to dredging for rare things in the ocean's depths. He has a thousand feet of line to the dredge and is bringing up some curious forms of marine life.

VENICE.

BABA AND MONNETT SPEAK.

VENICE, Aug. 4.—The subject of the lecture by the Baba Bharati, from India, delivered before the assembly this afternoon was "Life's Source and Search." He began his discourse by stating that the one common object of all in life is pleasure. This quest for happiness, he said, is ever present in mankind. The intent of each and all is to bring about that harmonious equilibrium which we call full satisfaction, complete contentment, absolute happiness.

In closing his series of addresses on the trusts, Mr. Monnett advocated that the government itself resume its franchises and operate the refrigerating car lines, express companies and tank car lines under certain conditions.

The Trusts of the world will be an organ recital by F. H. Colby and vocal solos by Miss Margaretta Buckler. In the evening the Venice Dramatic Company will present "A Pair of Lovers" and "Ici on Parle Français."

COVINA.

REAL ESTATE DEMAND.

COVINA, Aug. 4.—There is a steady and increasing demand for Covina real estate, both town and country. The sale was reported yesterday of ten acres of young fruit trees, the property of D. C. Hay, two miles north of town to Frank Bowen, of Rialston, Okla.; consideration named, $2500.

A. Layman has sold a two-story residence on East Second street to Mrs. Anna W. Smeed for $1500.

The members of the C. M. A. of the Covina High School entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. W. C. Williams, Crook, in honor of Miss Veta Hild, Merton Elliott, Rella Custer, Clayton and Bertha, who are members of the society, who will leave in a few days to take up their studies at Berkeley.

Rev. C. L. Davenport, a recently returned missionary from Manday, Burma, is visiting his mother, Mrs. R. A. Davenport. He will preach in the Baptist Church both morning and evening on Sunday next, speaking on "Personal Incidents of Mission Work in Burma."

Julius Maechten, who, with his partner, Rice, is held directly responsible for the derailment of the Santa Fe train at Pasadena on Thursday, has a father, Jacob Maechten, residing at this place. Julius was also a former resident of Covina.

ROADS AT "THE OUTPOST."

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 4.—The work of preparing the picturesque winding roadways at "The Outpost" for oiling has been begun. The base material is crushed gravel taken from the familiar gravel hill at the north end of the tract. The work of oiling, or asphaltizing, is to be done by Gen. Otis, by the Liquid Asphalt Roads Company (Blodgett, White & Baldwin) of No. 408 East Second street, Los Angeles. These road builders will use an exceptionally heavy oil of the Sunset fields, laid on a base composed of crushed and rolled gravel, using as much as three cubic yards of material will absorb, then top-dressed with fine screened gravel or sand, put in place, and rolled with a steam roller, having a firm, smooth surface, devoid of unevenness or stickiness. VENICE.

BABA AND MONNETT SPEAK.

VENICE, Aug. 4.—The subject of the lecture by the Baba Bharati, from India, delivered before the assembly this afternoon was "Life's Source and Search." He began his discourse by stating that the one common object of all in life is pleasure. This quest for happiness, he said, is ever present in mankind. The intent of each and all is to bring about that harmonious equilibrium which we call full satisfaction, complete contentment, absolute happiness.

In closing his series of addresses on the trusts, Mr. Monnett advocated that the government itself resume its franchises and operate the refrigerating car lines, express companies and tank car lines under certain conditions.

The Trusts of the world will be an organ recital by F. H. Colby and vocal solos by Miss Margaretta Buckler. In the evening the Venice Dramatic Company will present "A Pair of Lovers" and "Ici on Parle Français."

WAS STOLEN, SO SHE SAYS.

Pretty Girl from Maine is Located in Phoenix.

Declares She Was Forcibly Taken from Bangor.

Sister Comes After the Continent After Her.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Aug. 2.—When Miss Rose Piper, a woman of mature years and her 16-year-old sister, Lulu, boarded a Santa Fe train for New England this morning, there closed, presumably, the Arizona end of a pathetic family story. It involves as incidents the circumstances of a wrecked fortune, a young girl whom kindly fate alone has thus far kept from having a long journey across the continent in her quest of recovery.

Lulu, a beautiful and winsome little girl as ever came to Phoenix, was saved by the timely interference of a Phoenix family, a worthy couple who have children of their own, who cherish the orphaned feeling and whose hearts go out in sympathy to all little ones in distress. Through good fortune Lulu is now on the way to her eastern home, the same sweet and innocent child as ever she has been.

The father of the girls, who seems to have caused them their trouble, was formerly an eastern business man of good standing and well to do, but is now engaged in the humble occupation of peddling tamales on the streets of Phoenix.

About three months ago Mr. Piper appeared at the photographic studio of M. W. Mealey in this city, with a little girl more than usually prepossessing, with beautiful brown eyes, black hair, and of modest and refined manner. She was small of her age and evidently inexperienced in the ways of the world. The father introduced her as his daughter, Lulu, and asked if the photographer could give her a portrait. The artist questioned her closely and asked her where she was living.

On being informed he was very much surprised for he did not consider the locality a proper one for a person of her years and condition. There he went to see Mr. Piper and got his permission for Lulu to live at his home until better arrangements could be made. Lulu needed a number of things which the father was asked to provide for her. He did so but partially and then reluctantly for, though he is not a man of much means, the demands were trifling, such as a pair of shoes and other inexpensive articles of dress. Mr. Piper seemed to be in a state of mind that he was not to be trusted.

Hardly had the girl taken her residence at Mr. Mealey's home when it became apparent that she was agitated and very much afraid of her father. Being urged to tell more about herself she confided to them her story. She had just

OVERTON YET IS CHAMPION.

Aspirant Tom Bundy Puts up Brilliant Game.

High-class Tennis Seen in the Final of Singles.

Violet Sutton Takes Year's Honors for Women.

Defeated yesterday by Eugene Overton, only after four sets of the hardest, closest, brainiest tennis that has been known by the present tournament at Ocean Park. Challenger Tom Bundy must wait at least another year for the Southern California championship in open singles.

Defeated—but anything else than disgraced—grinding out his points by game uphill play characteristic of the tough, gritty young Bundy retired from the courts with little if any less credit than attached to the winner. Overton met by far the hardest opponent he ever tackled successfully, and was forced to exert every energy from the first service.

Handicapped somewhat by being off center, Champion Overton from the start sought to husband his strength and endurance just as Bundy strained each nerve and stretched every muscle, even to taking long chances occasionally on close playings that his gaudy opponent might be forced to extend himself and do that which of all things he wished least to do—cover the entire court.

Overton played in his usual finished form, and made several seemingly impossible returns.

Bundy was never better. He repeatedly passed the champion; lobbed over Overton's head, and put in several splendidly executed short shots at the net which usually gained the desired point. Until the finish the match seemed to be anybody's; the gallery was evenly divided, throughout, and each telling volley, or swift drive, or court brought forth a swelling roar of applause from the several hundred who sat and saw.

THE PLAY IN DETAIL.

Bundy took the first game, Overton having some trouble handling his opponent's service. The champion made it one all, and another pair of games totaled two all.

Overton then struck his pace, and after four more games which repeatedly returned to deuce, he ran out the set, score 6-2.

The champion of the courts looked rather tired, while Bundy was still full of energy. As Overton's service weakened a little, Bundy's grew more vigorous, and he started well by taking the first three games love. By cleverly lobbing over Bundy's head, and driving Tommy a chance to close the ball out of bounds, Overton won the fourth game, and then rallied strongly. Bundy took the next game by a pretty point at the net, driving in the decisive point with a stroke that neither Overton nor anyone else could handle successfully.

Overton's second game in the set was born of a well-killed job, and pretty-placed hot shot to the court corner that Bundy vainly swung his racket at as it sped by out of reach.

In the seventh game, Bundy endeavored to make a point on a short chop just over the net, but Overton was coming in fast, and counted instead, Bundy overreaching a volley to the corner. Again Bundy volleyed out and lost the game, 4-3.

By long odds the hardest tussle of the match came in the eighth service, when the score went to deuce a dozen times. The lads thumped each other all over the courts, vibrating from "vantage" in to "vantage" out until Bundy by a swift cross-court shot, finally clinched the game and practically assured himself of the set, eventually taking it, 6-3.

With "set all" the players got busy again at once, and a hot rally featured the opening of the third. Overton won two straight, and Bundy then by killing a short lob made it 2-1. This championship added a brace of games before Bundy's cross smash decided another game in his favor; Tommy spurted for a brief time until the score stood 4-2, Overton then winning two games and the third set.

After a brief rest, the decisive set was resumed, and Overton came through with a brilliant display, looking a winner for a time, but from four all, his opponent was invincible. The match left little to be desired, and was a fitting consummation of an event which was replete with good play at all times.

VIOLET SUTTON'S HONORS. Violet Sutton is the women's champion for 1934. This honor has come to be considered a fixture in the Sutton family, and the only question each year is which of the sisters is entitled to go after it.

Miss Florence, who won last summer, met Miss Violet, who won the challenge round, and the usual battle royal that the gallery has come to expect when Sutton meets Sutton resulted; 4-6, 1-4, 6-4, the scores, tell their own tale. Slam, bang tennis of a rather masculine order was the treat vouchsafed by the young ladies, and there was little indeed to choose between them as to skill. Miss Violet is playing the best game of her life this year, and, with the exception of the previous May, is doubtless invincible in her class.

Not many double matches were played yesterday, and the results are being reserved today. This afternoon should show some high-class play in all three events—men's, women's and mixed doubles. The teams left in are very well matched, and picking winners is unpromising business just at present.

Tonight the tennis ball and presentation of prizes will take place at the Country Club's house in Ocean Park. The event is to be a big social affair. Yesterday's summaries are appended: Open singles—Overton beat Bundy, 6-2, 1-4, 6-4.

Challenge round, ladies' singles—Miss Violet Sutton defeated Miss Florence Sutton, 6-4, 1-4, 6-4. Consolation singles—Broome beat Blobe, 6-1, 6-1; Young beat Cogswell, 6-4, 6-4; Angier beat Cooke, 6-4, 2-6, 6-1; Sheldon beat Jones, 6-4, 6-2. Mixed doubles—Miss Dobbins and Overton beat Miss Ryan and Young, 6-2, 6-2; Florence Sutton and Gorman beat Miss Dobbins and Overton, 6-1, 6-4; Violet Sutton and Blinbaugh beat Mrs. Bruce and Way, 6-3, 6-2.
